Use My Word!

I am making you whole again, says the Lord. What has been broken, what has been lost, I am restoring, and making you whole again. Walk with Me and grow with Me. Let Me lead you to that place [where] you belong. Let Me show you higher heights than you have ever imagined. Let Me take you places that you've not dreamed of. Oh, I have made you whole again. I am prospering you. I am calling you and causing you to come into your expected end. I am doing it! Stand on My Word and use My Word, says the Lord. Use, use My Word! Use My Word! Don't just know It, don't just read It, but use My Word! Did not I say, "My Word shall not return to Me void"? Did not I say, "It shall accomplish that which I please and prosper in the things to which I sent it"? Use My Word, says the Lord.
